

CATCH RADx-UP RESEARCH AT APHA ANNUAL MEETING 2023

RADx-UP project teams will present the results of their work at the American Public Health Association (APHA) Annual Meeting and Expo taking place in Atlanta November 12-15.

The APHA annual meeting is one of the most important gatherings of public health professionals in the United States. The meeting offers the RADx-UP consortium a rich environment to share data results and insights about RADx-UP community-engaged research around COVID-19 testing in underserved communities.
